

technicalsheet

introduction:

The International Fisheries and Aquaculture Salon is considered an important economic event. The Ministry of Fisheries and Fishing Products has been organizing it every two years since 2003, through the Algerian Chamber of Fishing and Aquaculture, which is considered the ideal space to highlight the transformations and developments witnessed by the fishing and aquaculture sector. By actually contributing to the development of the national economy and enhancing sustainable food security.

Name of the exhibition: The ninth edition of the International Marine Fisheries and Aquaculture Exhibition SIPA 2024

Organized by: The Ministry of Fisheries and Fisheries Production through the Algerian Chamber of Fisheries and Aquaculture in partnership with the Oran Convention Center – Mohamed Benahmed.

Patronage: under the patronage of the president of the Algerian Democratic Republic

Date: February 8 to 11, 2024.

Location: Oran Convention Center – Mohamed Benahmed.

Duration: 4 days

Digital platform: www.sipalgerie.com

Logo of the exhibition: Together, for sustainable food security.

Guest of honor:

Number of exhibitors waiting: approximately (185)

Number of national exhibitors expected: approximately (150)

Number of international exhibitors waiting: approximately (35)

Number of participating countries: Exhibitors from 25 foreign countries

Number of visitors expected: Suggestion (15,000)

Salon activities:

The exhibition includes pavilions displaying various fishing and aquaculture machinery, equipment and products for domestic and foreign operators, in addition to training activities, seminars, scientific and technical workshops, business meetings and partnerships.

And advertising and promotion activities for maritime fishing, aquaculture and industrial products, in addition to a tourist program intended for participants, particularly foreigners, to promote tourism in the city of Oran.

The International Marine Fishing and Aquaculture Show is also:

An opportunity to host meetings and sessions for international and regional bodies to develop the relationship

Marine fishing activities such as that of CGMP, OAIDA, FAO, UNDP and the Blue Economy Program of the European Union.

Target category:

The International Fisheries and Aquaculture Show brings together for four days:

- Economic operators and professionals active in the field of fishing and aquaculture
- Companies and institutions active in the field of fishing and aquaculture
- Researchers, universities and research centers
- Professional associations and cooperatives of fishing and fish production
- Start-ups and innovative project incubators
- Representatives of ministerial departments linked to fishing and fish production
- Representatives of national, regional and international organizations and bodies related to fishing and aquaculture
- Passionate about fishing and marine activities

Objectives of the International Fisheries and Aquaculture Exhibition:

- Open spaces for partnership, investment, consultation, cooperation and exchange of experiences between different national economic operators, including foreigners, in the areas of fishing and fish production.
- Assessment of Algeria's capacities and achievements in the field of maritime fishing and aquaculture
- Learning of new technologies used in the field of fishing and aquaculture and transfer of expertise
- Promote and encourage innovative projects in the field of maritime fishing and aquaculture

Emerging institutions

- Discuss ways of cooperation and partnership in the field of fisheries and aquaculture with friendly and brotherly countries and international and regional organizations

- Highlight capacities and investment opportunities in maritime fishing and fishery products, in particular

In the sectors:

- Coastal artisanal fishing and deepseafishing

- Aquaculture of different types

- Construction, maintenance and repair of ships

- Industry of processing, packaging and valorization of maritime fishing products

- Production devices and equipment in the maritime fishing and aquaculture sectors with friendly and brotherly countries and international and regional organizations

• Deep seafishing

Edition	SIPA 2013	SIPA 2015	SIPA 2017	SIPA 2019
Number of participants	110	177	187	102
Number of national participants	88	147	150	77
Number of international participants	22	30	35	25
Number of participating countries	14	15	22	10

